TUESDAY, MARCH 16, 1880.

REMARKS.

We are having a superfluity of rain. It was decidedly gloomy and disagreeable Sunday.

Nashville has subscribed $30,000 to the expedition loan.

An ice factory is soon to be established in Nashville.

In February 50,342 gallons of whiskey was manufactured in the Nashville district.

A car load of mules from the livery stable of Thompson, Jones & Co. were loaded and shipped from this place south, yesterday.

Circuit court for Campbell county assembled yesterday, at Jackboro, Hon. D. K. Young presiding. Several Knoxville lawyers are in attendance.

Farmers, Attention! We will have 25 car loads of Land Plaster on hand and for sale. Call early before the supply is exhausted. W. W. Woodruff & Co.

A Nashville man was prosecuted recently for the larceny of 75 cents, but was acquitted, and he immediately brought suit against the prosecutor for $50.00 damages.

They say there is no advance on Oliver Chilled Pews. The farmers ought to lay in their supply before the advance, which is sure to come. Woodruff & Co. keep a large stock.

A special session of the supreme court of the state will be held in this city to-day to render a decision in the great Rabb mining case, and also to pass upon the proceedings of the late arbitration court.

The cards are out for the celebration of the nuptial ceremonies Thursday night between an enterprising young grocery merchant on Broad street, and one of the reigning and popular belles of that same street.

Among the relics which are being collected for the centennial exhibition at Nashville next month, the American mentions a razor formerly owned by George Washington, and a violin owned by an Edgely family, given to their grandfather by Thomas Jefferson.

The sale of seats at the East Tennessee book house for Frederick Paulding's Hamlet Wednesday night is still progressing and they are in demand. Everything indicates that the talented young actor will meet with a rousing reception, and those who still wish desirable seats should apply to-day at the very latest.

At a public meeting in Bristol last week the following representative men of that place were appointed to go as delegates to Cincinnati, on the occasion of the C. S. excursion, provided satisfactory arrangements can be made: J. H. Winston, I. C. Fowler, J. Bunting, W. W. James, S. B. Ferguson and J. M. Barker.

Here's the way a Boston paper advertises us: "A Tennessee man accidentally shot a dog, and in trying to explain to the owner how it occurred, accidentally shot him. A coroner thought he ought to explain how he shot the man, but couldn't get a jury that was willing to listen to the explanation; they were kind of shy of him, as it were."

The crazy "Game of 15." Ramage & Co. have a new supply.

Shoes cheap at Hall's. mar24th.

The Chronicle's New Quarters.

The CHRONICLE is now comfortably established in its new and commodious quarters on Gay street, east side, second door south of the corner of Church, adjoining the New Orleans store. Our friends are invited to call and they will be made welcome. The business office is on the first floor, where all persons having business, in the way of subscription, advertising or job work should call. The job department occupies the second floor, and the third is devoted to the editorial and composing departments.

Don't fail to see H. W. Hall's stock, when you want a good Shoe or Hat at low figures. mar24th.

One of the Crooked Boys.

Deputy Marshals J. C. Duff and Walker, came to Knoxville on yesterday evening's train with a prisoner named Wm. Roden, whom they arrested in Monroe county, for violation of the revenue law, and who is bound over to the next term of the federal court.

The Delegates to Cincinnati.

Knoxville's delegation to Cincinnati, consisting of fifteen representative business men, together with about a half dozen others, furnished passes through the courtesy of Maj. Thos. O'Connor, will leave to-day, some going on the early train, others at noon, to join the great excursion over the Cincinnati Southern. Three special trains will leave Chattanooga to-morrow morning, at 6:30, 8:45 and 7:00 respectively, for the accommodation of the excursionists, and are to arrive in Cincinnati between 8 and 9 that night. On Thursday night, a monster banquet is to be spread in Music Hall, to which all are given free access, and they are to have a glorious time generally.

If you want anything in the Store line, or tinware of any description, go to Shea & Donahoe. They will sell to you right.

The Walk and Chronicle.

We desire to call the attention of business men in Knoxville and elsewhere, to the value of our weekly, the WALK and CHRONICLE, as an advertising medium. It has a larger circulation than any paper published between Nashville or Atlanta and Richmond. It circulates among the very best farmers and business men in East Tennessee, besides in other portions of the state and nearly every state in the Union. Our list is all the time increasing for which we take occasion to thank our kind friends. Advertisements for the WALK and CHRONICLE intended for this week's issue should be handed in as early as 9 a. m. to-day.

Any miss or lady can be fitted and suited in a nice Shoe at H. W. Hall's. mar24th.

Rogers, of Rogers & Perry, departed on yesterday's noon train, en route to Cincinnati. They go to take in the great banquet and demonstration on the 18th, but having special arrangements, will go from Chattanooga to-day, one day in advance of the excursion.

Hon. Jordan Stokes, of Lebanon, Tenn., who occupied the bench in the supreme court at the trial of the great case of the Union Consolidated Mining Company vs. J. E. Rabb, arrived in the city Sunday night, and is stopping at the Lamar House.

Mr. Wm. R. Fitzsimmons, of the Elizabethton Mountaineer, was in the city yesterday.

Capt. Wm. C. Nelson, of Philadelphia, Tennessee, has been on a short visit to his old friends about Knoxville, and returned home yesterday.

Gen. Wm. Patrick, president of the Knoxville marble company, and his brother, Jas. Patrick, both of St. Louis, who have been in the city for some days, left on their return trip yesterday. They will take in the Cincinnati Southern demonstration, and represent the Knoxville marble interest.

Mrs. Julia David, wife of Jacob David, of Lexington, Ky., who has been visiting at Mr. Jo. David's for a few days, left yesterday, returning home. She goes to Chattanooga, and over the Cincinnati Southern.

Col. Xen. Wheeler, of Chattanooga, U. S. District Attorney for this district, is in the city.

Maj. A. H. Pettibone, of Greenville, came down on yesterday's train.

Hon. Richard Smith, editor of the Cincinnati Gazette, spent Sunday in Chattanooga, as we are informed, and was to return to Cincinnati yesterday.

Hon. Jas. M. Meek, of New Market, came to Knoxville on the noon train yesterday.

Messrs. P. P. Mayfield and J. H. and Perry Galt, prominent attorneys of Cleveland, came up yesterday evening, to attend the special session of the supreme court, to-day.

McClellan's Last Service.

The April number of the North American Review will contain an article by George Ticknor Curtis, entitled "McClellan's Last Service to the Republic." It will cover the whole period of Gen. McClellan's military career, from the flank movement to the James to the defeat of Lee at Antietam. It will be followed by a second part in the May issue, giving the full history of McClellan's removal from command. These articles will be replete with facts hitherto unknown to the public.

Light-weight, Spring Style Silk Hats just received at H. W. Hall's.

Shen & Donahoe have just received another car load of stoves. They say they are going to sell them, and will not be undersold by any one.

Missionary to China.

Rev. T. C. Carter, for several years past pastor of the Methodist church, and principal of the college at Tulahoma, has been appointed by Bishop I. W. Wiley, of the M. E. church, principal of the church's educational institution at Kiu-Kiang, China. He and his family have been in the city a day or two, and leave this morning for West Tennessee to visit relatives. They will sail from San Francisco May 1.—Nashville American.

Mr. Carter will be remembered by parties about Athens, and connected with the East Tennessee Wesleyan university at that place, as a former student of that institution.

London Dots.

London, March 13, 1880. Rain, rain, rain, is the order of the day here now. The roads are getting in a wretched condition. The streets speak eloquently to the pedestrian on the necessity for improvement.

Farmers are very much delayed in their work. Gardening is retarded, much to the regret of the good housewives. They were all hoping to have an early supply of vegetables and spring chickens ready for the East Tennessee Sunday school convention. But,

"The wisest plans of mice and men, How often they gang agone."

Business is looking up in our little village. All the merchants are getting ready for the spring trade.

Messrs. Lowry & Duff have opened a new drug store. Neatly appointed, and new houses are now situated on Depot square. It presents quite a city-like appearance.

London will be represented in the Cincinnati excursion. Messrs. West and Simpson and Howard & Bro. have received tickets.

There is a good opening here for some kind of manufacturing establishment. If some firm would begin the manufacture of buckets, tubs, or some other wooden ware, it would doubtless succeed. The firm of Ristine & May is doing well, and there is no reason why several other manufacturing should not succeed. We will extend a hearty welcome to all who come into our midst to do business. We are not anxious for any idlers to report. We have a supply of loafers in hands now, and will trade them cheaply, yet we have souls big enough to give the East Tennessee convention a welcome such as no other place can surpass.

Col. Lockett, of Knoxville, favored our people with his lecture on Egypt last night. Those who heard it were delighted. It was unfortunately a very unfavorable evening, and many were deprived of the pleasure of hearing it. Col. Lockett is certainly a very polished speaker.

He visited the college and gave the students a beautiful talk at the close of their Friday evening exercises. He also demonstrated his method of teaching geometry. Teachers and pupils were delighted with him. If he should favor us with his presence again he will command a fine house, for he made a good impression on our first visit. We congratulate the university at Knoxville on having such an efficient member in its faculty.

Judge Rodgers is at home now, having a brief respite from his court duties. He will start on his tour again. The judge is establishing a fine character as a prompt and efficient officer, and we feel proud of him. The bench should always be honored by such men.

The Monroe Democrat contains a card in this week's issue from W. L. Weicker, in regard to a call to the legislature. No doubt Mr. Weicker would make a good representative. He is a sober, upright man; attentive to business, and a successful lawyer. If our country is to be represented by a democrat, let it be one who will strive to do honor to the office.

The CHRONICLE has some staunch friends here, who admire its bold, straightforward, manly course. Long may it live to fight corruption and falsehood. If our country is to be represented by a democrat, let it be one who will strive to do honor to the office.

Mr. Staub's Real Estate Sale.

Although the weather was quite unfavorable, Mr. Peter Staub, as announced in Sunday's issue, began his sale, as special commissioner, of the real estate belonging to the late R. B. Bearden, in Bearden's addition to Knoxville, about three hundred yards from the street railroad station. Sales were made as follows: Lot 11 at $160, and 12 at $90, to M. M. Gaines, Jr. The following lots were sold to Mrs. B. R. Bearden: 24, at $81; 27, at $101; 30, at $35; 33 and 36, at $25 each; 31, at $171.50; 34, at $79. J. L. Cooley, lot 22, at $215; 25, at $190; 37, at $52. B. F. Smith, lot 28, at $161. R. Anderson, lot 35, at $59.

Here the sale was discontinued and will be continued next Monday, due notice of which will be given.

A noticeable and cheerful fact in connection with this sale is that all the desirably located lots brought fully 100 percent more than the former sale, which was not confirmed by the chancery court. This sale will be final and will stand.

River News.

The river has risen very little since Saturday, although there has been an almost constant rainfall since about midnight Saturday night. At latest observations yesterday it stood at about 14 feet. If the rains have extended up the country another rise was expected during last night.

The steamer Harry Helm arrived with some moving plunder and other loading and will leave again on her return trip to-morrow morning.

The commodore also reports the following arrival of grain barges yesterday: Capt. Hale, 2,500 bushels of corn and wheat; Capt. Lyon, 1,000 bushels of wheat and corn, for sale; Capt. J. S. Woods, 900 bushels of corn; another barge, 1,000 bushels of wheat and corn, sold to grain merchants; and 5,000 boards for Clark's new saw mill on the south side.

Bronchitis, or Chronic Sore Throat.

It is attended with irritation of the bronchial tubes, which convey the air we breathe into the lungs. This irritation produces sore throat, hoarseness, coughing and sometimes spitting of matter streaked with blood. If it is neglected it will extend down to the lungs, and settles into a confirmed consumption. Allen's Lung Balm will be found a most valuable remedy for curing this disease, and prevents its running into consumption.

For sale by all medicine dealers.

For sore throat, gargle with Pin's Cure, mixed with a little water. Relief is instant. Jan 24th

THE KNOX COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Let there be such a Rally as Never was seen before in this county. To the Republicans of Knox county: Let me urge upon you the duty and necessity of turning out en masse at Knoxville, on Monday, the 20th inst., to attend the meeting of the Knox county republican convention.

It is not only essential that every district be represented by a full delegation, but it is highly desirable that every republican in the county, white and colored, be present—the rank and file, as well as the more prominent leaders of the party.

Let the best men of the party be sent as delegates. Some of our wards and districts send men who can be manipulated and raised on men of character. These will disgrace us rather than commend us to the people at large. Raise the standard, gentlemen, raise the standard. With some exceptions, the democratic convention was a respectable body of men.

This convention was the boldest which has met in Knoxville since the war, to my knowledge. Our own lack of management and union has given them an office now and then, which has emboldened them beyond expression almost. Their deep-seated plan now is to capture the county, and to do it out of the hands of a large republican majority.

Are republicans going to be "hood-winked," "soft-soaped" and trifled with any longer? Surely not, after the last year's record of the democratic party. I think that "Waterloo" business is out of the hands of the chairman of the democratic convention has done the work for them. That is the straw that will break the democratic camel's back. That is the "mill-stone" around the neck of Knox county democracy.

That is the iron heel of power that will stomp the mud out of sight in August. The new states coming in will give the republicans a large majority in the electoral college by another presidential election. Without them, the republican party will sweep the country. This will end the democratic party in the nation.

Let us do our duty now, reclaim every office in this county, and after this election we will not be bothered further with them. "Waterloo!" Bosh! The Knox county democracy will receive such a kick from the "republican party" that they will not be able to find one piece out of a thousand afterwards. But let us not think we can elect anyone to office. Tried, that has failed. Some are afraid the weakest man in the race will be nominated. Do not fear. The republicans are not such fools. Let the delegates canvass this matter thoroughly. The strongest man before the people of this county is generally the best man. Take a high-toned gentleman who is popular, who has no load to carry and who can carry as much as possible every republican vote in the county. Let "Waterloo" ring from one end of Knox county to the other till August and then all can join in the grand chorus: "John Brown's soul is marching on!" REPUBLICAN.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

Rev. SYLVANUS COBB thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman: "We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge: in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and its parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as 'bright as a button.' And during the process of teething, its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it is finished with the teething stage, on any consideration whatever."
